OA district aids the needy

STORYCHAT: Post Comment

Four families will receive food baskets this Christmas, courtesy of the administrators and employees working in the Owego-Apalachin district's main office at 36 Talcott St., Owego. This effort, coordinated by Barb Dornblaser, saw the food baskets delivered to the families late last week by Sue Wilmott, OA's home school coordinator.

In addition to the food baskets, monetary contributions allowed for each family to receive a gift certificate to John's Fine Foods of Owego, to be used specifically toward the purchase of a ham or a turkey.

Dornblaser was joined by Janet Kline for the shopping effort. "We bought and collected foods, not only for holidays meals," said Dornblaser, "but for stocking the pantry and the fridge while the kids are home during winter break."
