

When Pigs Fly

June 4, 2007

Owego Free Academy art teacher Sue Camin went to work early on this morning (Monday, June 4) and by early afternoon, about 30 pigs had taken flight in the Owego Free Academy lobby, where they'll float until next fall's school year begins. The pigs were created by students in Camin's art classes. Materials for the pigs were either recycled or found somewhere in nature.
