Nine AP scholars named at OA

STORYCHAT: Post Comment

Nine members of Owego Free Academy's Class of 2007 have earned the designation of AP Scholar by the College Board in recognition of their exceptional achievement on the college-level Advanced Placement Program (AP) exams. Students took AP exams in May after completing college-level courses. The College Board recognizes several levels of achievement based on student's performance on AP exams.

Leah Mendelson and Charles Engelhard qualified for the AP Scholar with Distinction Award by earning an average grade of at least 3.5 on all AP exams taken, and grades of 3 or higher on five or more of these exams. Adam Majka and Aja Lans qualified for the AP Scholar with Honor Award by earning an average grade of at least a 3.25 on all AP exams taken, and grades of 3 or higher on four or more of these exams.

The AP Scholar award was achieved by five students who completed three or more AP exams, with grades of 3 or higher. They are: Catherine Campbell, Meghan Gordineer, Daniel Murphy, Kristin Peterson and Anna Phan.

The College Board's Advanced Placement Program offers students the opportunity to take challenging college-level courses while still in high school, and to receive college credit, advanced placement, or both for successful performance on the AP exams.
