Students collect items for Rural Ministries

STORYCHAT: Post Comment

Student council representatives at Owego-Apalachin Middle School presented more than 1,000 food and paper product items Friday to Sister Phyllis F. McGuire of Tioga County Rural Ministries.

In addition, teacher Jim Hamlin organized a coat collection from teachers. A check for $324 from candy cane sales also was given to the ministries.

Items were collected in home rooms, and student council members sold candy canes in the cafeteria during lunch periods, school officials said.

Wait!!!

You mean students in a public school, collected things for a Christian Ministry???

What about separation of church and state? 😬

Dripping with sarcasm off...

Great job kids! 😊
