The Owego Apalachin Transportation Department hosted the Southern Tier Bus Road-eo on Saturday, May 12. During the event, drivers from around the region could compete in various driving tasks and were scored by judges at each obstacle station.

In the Transit Division, first place went to James Clink. Second was Veronica Gober. Clink and Gober represented the Whitney Point district. In the bus division, order of finish was: Joseph Amstutz (first), Lynda Cole (second) and Wayne Harding (third). All three of these drivers represented Laidlaw in Binghamton.
